ENLISTMENT OPEN FOR TRAINING CAMPS

TWENTY-ONE YOUNG MEN OF BULLOCH COUNTY ARE ELIGIBLE TO ENLISTMENT.

Leroy Covart, county chairman for C. M. T. C. procurement, announced today that Dr. R. L. Cone and Dr. A. J. Mooney, both of this city, have volunteered their services in the physical examination of applicants for C. M. T. C. camps this summer.

The doctors state that anti-phosphorus inoculations and smallpox vaccinations will also be administered free of charge, except for a nominal charge covering the smallpox vaccine, which it is impracticable for the government to furnish.

Mr. Covart states that doctors throughout the United States are patriotically volunteering their aid in the examination of applicants because they appreciate the value to the youth and to the nation of the health and mind developing advantages in the C. M. T. camps.

Medical officers of the regular army stationed at Ft. Screven will also conduct the examination for any applicant, free of charge. Mr. Covart stated.

The quota allotted Bulloch county will give twenty-one young men of the county opportunities to attend this summer's camps of the C. M. T. C. Association, conducted by the government at different centers throughout the Fourth Corps Area. All counties in the state have been allotted quotas.

The campaign for applicants has opened and acceptance of qualified applicants has begun, declared Mr. Covart, who also stated that he had complete information and application blanks. He urges all those who are planning to take advantage of this opportunity to apply at once to insure acceptance while the quota remains unfilled. Last year many late applicants were disappointed.

All necessary expenses attached to camp attendance are paid by the government. Mr. Covart explained. "The railroad fares from home to the nearest camp and return, the food, clothing, lodging, laundry service, medical attention and instruction are all paid by the government."

It is all purely voluntary and there is no obligation for any military service, present or future, upon those who go to camps and undertake the training.

All persons interested may obtain information upon application to Mr. Covart.

BROOKLET HIGH SCHOOL ATTAINS HIGH HONOR

In Georgia the state supervisors of agricultural education visit all the schools where vocational agriculture is taught and score the work of the departments. The 15 per cent of the schools making the highest rank are classed as superior departments for the year. The schools are visited twice during the year and the average of the two scores determines the final standing. Below are the schools that made best showing on full scoring:

Wrightsville High, F. A. Hodgeson, teacher, 88.5.

Winnet High, Geo. H. King, teacher, 88.5.

Martin Institute, O. C. Aderhold, teacher, 86.0.

Lanier County High, A. P. Lewis, teacher, 84.0.

Centerville Consolidated, E. C. Young, teacher, 82.5.

Lanier High (Macon), W. H. Sorrells, teacher, 82.0.

Bowman High, D. D. Hill, teacher, 81.0.

Brooklet High, E. W. Graham, teacher, 80.4.

Phoenicia High, L. T. Haygood, teacher, 80.0.

Camilla High, J. F. Field, teacher, 79.7.

Washington High, C. M. Reed, teacher, 79.0.

Reed Creek Consolidated, H. L. Fry, teacher, 78.5.

After dreaming of making a flying tackle in a football game, Harris Wootel, a 16-year-old grammar school graduate star of Abilene, Texas, awoke two stories below his bedroom window.

The intention of the committee in charge is to arrange a Leap Year program, which will be something unique in the history of the organization.

The annual ladies' night banquets in the past have regularly been held during February. Once the program was featured for St. Valentine and another time Washington's Birthday. It is, therefore, fitting that the next meeting should fall on leap year night and should partake of that flavor.

The committee who will arrange the program have not worked out all the details, but it is not violating any secrets to state there will be some surprises sprung and that the ladies will have a large part in the program. The program will be covered by A. A. A. membership and service by committees.

(STATSBORO NEWS—STATSBORO EAGLE)

GEORGIA PRESBYTERIANS IN "EVERY MEMBER" CANVASS

With the slogan "Every Church Enlisted; Every Member Canvassed," the Presbyterian church in the United States is making plans for the best "every member canvass" in its history. On March 11, when the canvass will take place, every Presbyterian will be asked to pledge the amount to be paid during the next church year.

The total amount sought will approximate $15,000,000, of which $4,459,475 is for benevolent enterprise and more than $9,000,000 for current expenses for the congregations. All committees, including Foreign Missions, Assembly's Home Mission, Christian Education, Sunday School and Publication, the Woman's Auxiliary and the Men-of-the-Church, are backing the canvass unanimously and heartily.

The secretaries of the church are assisting in conference and making tours to help the individual congregations organize their local canvasses.

Dr. J. B. Ficklen, secretary for the synod of Georgia, believing forethought and prayer necessary to the success of the effort, asks through the Bulloch Times that the canvass be constantly in the thoughts and prayers of all its Presbyterian readers.

The General Assembly, highest court of the Presbyterian church, has asked that when officers of the local churches meet to make out their annual budgets, the presidents of the various men's, women's and young people's societies, and the superintendent of the Sunday school be present in order to help plan the work ahead and to act intelligently on those plans.

Dr. Ficklen asks that this suggestion be borne in mind this year when budgets are being prepared by the Presbyterian churches in Statesboro and Bulloch county.

Two points are being used in the canvass, the "volunteer" plan, by which members of the churches come to the church on March 11 and voluntarily make their pledges, and the "door-to-door" plan by which all members are visited on the date by teams and their pledges taken.

Headquarters for the Stewardship Department of the church, which has general charge of the canvass, is in Atlanta. Dr. J. R. McCain, president of Agnes Scott College, Decatur, Ga., is chairman of the Stewardship Committee.

FIDDLERS' CONVENTION COMING TO STATESBORO

There will be an important event in the nature of an "Old Fiddlers' Convention" in the auditorium of the Statesboro High School building on Friday night, March 2nd. "Uncle Dave" Woods and "Uncle Ed" Cowart and others will furnish the music, together with some local talent.

This "convention" will be under the auspices of the Statesboro Parent-Teachers' Association. More detailed information will appear in the next issue of this paper.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE PLANS LADIES' NIGHT

Wednesday evening, February 29, has been designated as ladies' night for the Statesboro Chamber of Commerce, the selection having been announced at the last meeting of the organization Friday evening.

The intention of the committee in charge is to arrange a Leap Year program, which will be something unique in the history of the organization.

The annual ladies' night banquets in the past have regularly been held during February. Once the program was featured for St. Valentine and another time Washington's Birthday. It is, therefore, fitting that the next meeting should fall on leap year night and should partake of that flavor.

STATSBORO STUDENT WRITES PRIZE POEM

MISS VELMA KEMP'S VERSES ON DR. PARKS' DEATH ARE GIVEN HIGHEST PRAISE.

The Savannah Morning News correspondent at Statesboro writes the following interesting news item to that paper:

Vol. XII of the Bulletin of the Georgia State College at Milledgeville has been received in this city and a distinct compliment is paid to Dr. Parks' death poem selected by Miss Velma Kemp of Statesboro, who is attending the school in Milledgeville. Miss Kemp's achievement has to do with the handsome Parks Memorial Hospital which will commemorate his efforts for the institution. Miss Kemp's poem dealt with the death of Dr. Parks as selected by the directors of the memorial association and appears on the front page of this Bulletin. In its beautiful rhythmic style Miss Kemp's poem follows:

Parks Memorial Hospital. In memory of work and heart so true Of him who died, has caused our hearts to mourn;

Let us who loved him pledge our selves anew To tasks he fostered though we feel forlorn.

If we but think of service done by him, Who was to us through all the years so dear; Who walked with us with spirits never dim And for the college to his heart so near;

We will erect upon our campus fair A great memorial to symbolize His consecrated life, so true, so rare. He left a treasure which we highly prize.

His watchword—"Serve your fellow-men and do the thing that God has set apart for you."

It is understood that Miss Kemp's poem will be inscribed on the Parks Memorial, and her many friends in this city have congratulations for her on the achievement.

To say she is intelligent does not take the necessary word out of the corresponding vocabulary. In competition with twenty states in an essay on the Confederate Flag she won a scholarship at Besse Tift College. Her ambition, however, was pointed to the Georgia State College at Milledgeville, and in preference to the scholarship at the famous college she accepted a two-weeks' camping trip in North Carolina, after which she went to Milledgeville and has attained high honors.

"The Bulletin" is replete with interesting information about the wonderful hospital that is about completed in Milledgeville. The inside of the initial page bears a half-toned on enameled paper of the lamented educator, and as Miss Kemp says, his watchword was "serve your fellow-men and do the thing that God has set apart for you."

LEGION AUXILIARY TO STAGE BURLESQUE SHOW

At the High School auditorium on Saturday evening, February 11th, the auxiliary of the American Legion will present "Danger," a burlesque entertainment, under the direction of Mrs. Garland of Atlanta, professional, who opens with negro impersonations.

The auxiliary will not be responsible if your eyes run seas of water, your sides ache and you die of laughter. Popular prices will be 25 and 50 cents. Here are a few of the characters: Blide groom, S. C. Groover, president of the Bank of Statesboro; bride, guest who? Babes, Judge Strange and Maxey E. Grimes; Miss Squallina, J. E. McCran; Little Johnnie Horner, D. D. Arden; New York Flapper, John Wilcox; Sis Hopkins, D. B. Turner.

ANOTHER HOG SALE ON FRIDAY OF NEXT WEEK

Another co-operative hog sale will be held at Statesboro on Friday of next week, February 17th. Please list your hogs with County Agent in advance.

POINTERS ON TREATMENT FOR IRISH POTATOES

A very large percentage of the Irish potatoes sold for seed in this state are affected with two serious diseases, namely, "scab" (Rhizoctonia) and "scab." If such seed are planted without treatment to kill the fungi that causes these diseases the result is almost certain to be a reduction of yield and also a large percentage of diseased and unmarketable potatoes.

Rhizoctonia is a fungus which attacks the surface of young tubers, making them unfit for market, and also frequently attacks and kills the vines. The Rhizoctonia fungus is common in many soils, causing the condition known as "damping off" in many seedlings.

Common scab is also produced by a fungus and may be recognized on the potato by the rough surface due to the numerous holes left by the disease. These are often as deep as one-fourth inch. Like Rhizoctonia, the scab fungus also occurs in some soils. However, it is practically absent from acid soils, even though diseased potatoes may recently have been grown on the land.

Seed potatoes may be treated for the control of both diseases at the same time. When treating for the control of Rhizoctonia wet the potatoes thoroughly, cover with wet sacks or other covering and let stand for 48 hours before treating. The fungus on the damp potatoes begins growth and is more easily killed.

Prepare a solution of corrosive sublimate (mercuric chloride), using it in the proportion of 4 ounces to 50 gallons of water. Make up the solution in a wooden tub, half barrel, or other wooden container as the solution will corrode metal. Two tubs with drains near the bottom are convenient as the solution can be drained from the potatoes into the second tub, thus saving time and labor. Other potatoes can be put into the same solution. Soak for one and one-half hours. Remove from the solution and put in clean place until ready to cut for planting.

Do not treat the cut seed pieces or treat the seed in sacks as both tend to reduce the strength of the solution. Thirty gallons of solution will treat five bushels of uncut seed potatoes. By keeping the volume at 30 gallons and adding one-half ounce of corrosive sublimate after each five bushels of potatoes the same solution can be used repeatedly.

Good control for common scab is obtained by soaking the potatoes for one and one-half hours in a solution of formalin made up in the proportion of one pint to 30 gallons of water. This is not satisfactory for Rhizoctonia.

NAOMI C. WOODRUFF, Assistant Botanist, Georgia Experiment Station.

CARD FROM JOSH NESSMITH

TO THE VOTERS:
The Bulloch County primary for the election of county officers is only a few days away, and I take this method of again thanking the people of this county for the generous support given me in my race for the office of tax collector four years ago. And, further, I wish to thank my opponents for their kind and generous remarks to the people in different parts of the county relative to myself, and reciprocate to these gentlemen by saying that whoever may be elected for this office, no mistake will be made. However, it is only natural that I should wish to secure the office, and in the event of my election, will promise to the people my undivided attention to the office, and will expend every effort to make you proud of your vote.

When you go to make out your ticket, please be so kind as to give me your consideration, and in the event that you leave me on your ticket, I will assure you that your favor will be most highly appreciated. Respectfully submitted,
JOSH T. NESSMITH.

A CARD FROM BROOKS WHITE

To the Voters and Taxpayers of Bulloch County:

Just a word to the voters. As we are closing this campaign for your county officers, I think it well to come out and tell you what we stand for and then leave it to your judgment which man you want to serve you; though, as some of you have said, there was so many good men in the race you couldn't tell which one you wanted to vote for, but in my race you have several other good men to pick from and believe you will find what I stand for, and hoping it meets with your approval to support me; but if it should not, then pick out the one you think will be best for your county's interest and welfare and cast your ballot for him, and here is what I have to say to you:

In announcing myself for tax collector, I have something more to offer you for your vote than just to get the office, and this is my proposition to you:

I understand that this office pays around five thousand dollars a year, since it has been put in the hands of the collector to issue it was and levy and collect taxes. Gentlemen, there is not a man that is fit and that to Bulloch county for the amount of time it takes to attend to this office, and here is my proposition to you: If elected to this office, when my salary reaches four thousand dollars a year, I can't pay me another cent, for I can support my family and run this office and clear two thousand dollars a year, and I consider that is enough for any one man to draw from the tax payers of Bulloch county, and take the balance of that money and turn it over to the county school superintendent and let him see that each child in Bulloch county gets in school as far as that will go, and if there is no need for it, then turn it over to the road commissioners and let them continue to reduce the road taxes more, for high salaries is one cause of our taxes being as high as they are, not saying anything about what has been done in the past, but looking forward to what we can do in the future for it concerns me as much as it does any of you for I am one of those that is affected by the taxes have been being raised nearly every year for the past ten years, and I think it is getting time to stop and think a little before we go any further.

Now, this is only a business proposition I am putting up to you as tax payers of Bulloch county, and if you are satisfied with it like it is, vote your convictions, if you are not, then vote for the man that has offered you something.

I am yours for less salary and less taxes by using a little more economy for it can be done. Your vote and influence will be appreciated. I am, Yours respectfully,
BROOKS B. WHITE.

LESSON No. 17
Question: Why is emulsified cod-liver oil so efficient a food for young children?

Answer: Rickets or weak bones are evidences of lime-deficiency. Emulsified vitamin-rich cod-liver oil helps Nature supply this deficiency.

Pure, pleasantly flavored, nothing quite surpasses

AT GEORGIA NORMAL SCHOOL

Guy H. Wells, president of the college, has just returned from a trip which included Vidalia, Cochran, McRae and Dublin.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Wells motored to Claxton Monday afternoon. Mr. Wells made a talk before the Claxton P. T. A.

There will be a special edition of the Georgia News this week, sponsored by Alvin A. Singley, head of the history department. Various members of the history classes have made contributions to this paper, which promises to be one of the best put out this year. The paper is being published in honor of Georgia Day, which is February 12th. The regular staff is as follows: Editor, Mac Cumming; assistant editor, Ernest Kennedy; athletic editor, LaPace Collins; assistant athletic editor, Trannie Trappell; campus editor, Annie Miller; news editor, Francis Mathis; alumni editor, Deimas Rushing; humor and feature, George Mathis; typist, Travick Stubbs.

The regular bi-weekly teachers' meeting was held in the business office Tuesday evening at 8:00 o'clock. Papers were prepared and read by Miss Carrie Law Clay, Miss Malvina Trussell and Alvin A. Singley, then Mr. Henderson gave a summary of the papers. The papers were read after the regular business meeting.

Z. S. Henderson, dean, motored to Vidalia Saturday, where he has organized an extension class.

The home economics club entertained Wednesday evening in the home economics dining room in honor of Miss Elizabeth Bruce who has just left for New York City. Miss Malvina Trussell and Alvin A. Singley, then Mr. Henderson gave a summary of the papers. The papers were read after the regular business meeting.

Miss True Watson has been elected captain of the girls' varsity basketball team.

Alvin A. Singley motored to Rocky Ford Wednesday afternoon to conduct an extension class.

Miss Malvina Trussell had as her guest last week her brother, Elbert Trussell, of Columbus.

The young men on the basketball team who made the trip through South Georgia last week were C. G. Rountree, Waldo Pafford (captain), Ralph Hineson, William Henry Price, James Tillery, Ed Byrd, Parker Bryant, George Mathis, Paul Thompson, Vernon Call, and Coach H. A. Woodie. The team was very successful on this trip as they won from Douglas and Norman Park, being defeated by Tifton College. Mrs. R. E. Pulllove and young son, Seaborn, Miss Carrie Law Clay and Miss Mabel Brunson accompanied the team on the trip.

Mrs. Alvin A. Singley, Miss Celestial Knotts, Miss Elizabeth Carter and Miss Virginia Knotts motored to South Carolina last week end. The vesper service was held in the auditorium Sunday evening and the following program was given, with Miss Ruth Coleman as leader: Song; Scripture, Ruth Coleman; silent prayer; pantomime, The Painted Doll, Hazel Dunlap, Lois Trutchin, Eunice Wilson; reading, Virginia Lewis; piano solo, Elizabeth Edenfeld; dismissal.

CARD FROM MR. DONALDSON
To the Voters of Bulloch County:

With only a few days till the primary, I take this method of reminding my friends that I am still counting steadfastly on their support. I have not been able to see any of you, and will not be able to do so in the time remaining. I want to call your attention again to the fact that I led the race in the first primary four years ago, and under the rules of the present primary I would have been the winner. In the run-off I was defeated by a combination of forces. The race is now open and fair. The man who gets the most votes will win. I want you to help me get the most votes; every vote will count.

Yours earnestly,
HUDSON DONALDSON.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our appreciation and thanks to our friends and neighbors who were so kind and good to us during our recent sickness and bereavement. May God's richest blessings be with each and every one.

Mrs. J. C. Dutton and Family.

AN EXPLANATION

I hear that some of the candidates for sheriff say that I did not make the race myself thinking it might help them for me to stay out. I want to say I did not stay out thinking it would help or harm any candidate. It was altogether on account of the condition of my health.

I have thought the matter over, and on account of the fitness and ability of the men, will support Mr. J. N. Waters for sheriff, and hope my friends will join me and help nominate him.

Yours truly,
W. H. DeLOACH.

A COMEDY DRAMA

THURSDAY, February 9th

"THE KID BROTHER"

With Harold Lloyd and Jobyna Ralston; story by Harold Lloyd, himself; directed by Ted Wilde. Your time is enjoyed if you spend it with Lloyd—your troubles soon depart "neath Harold Lloyd's art. Lloyd plays the part of the black sheep of the family, but later proves himself really the white sheep of the family. "Laugh and live longer," is an old story and Lloyd demonstrates the wisdom of this belief. Throw out the laugh lines, Lloyd's here again. This is the second showing of "The Kid Brother" at this theatre. Extra, "CAMPUS ROMEOES," a comedy as funny as any we have shown in weeks!

A SPECTACULAR DRAMA

FRIDAY, February 10th

"RICHARD, THELIONHEARTED"

With Wallace Beery and Gerrard; based on Sir Walter Scott's novel, "The Talesman," with Wallace Beery as "King Richard," the role he created in "Robin Hood." This is the greatest historical romance ever filmed, a rare opportunity to see history re-enacted. This is a picture no lover of romance and adventure will miss. A production no student of history or literature can afford to miss. It's a very expensive production, the costumes alone, costing over $40,000. "A GYM DANDY," is the comedy.

A ROMANTIC DRAMA

SATURDAY and MONDAY, February 11 and 13

"CAMILLE"

With Norma Talmadge and Gilbert Roland; a modern version of Dumas' world famous story. "Camille," the stage's greatest love classic directed by Fred Niblo. At last, after one year in the studio, Norma Talmadge has completed her spectacular modern version of the classic romance of the century; Dumas' world famous story of the most vibrant beauty in all history. A gorgeous pageant of sirens of all ages is one of the most spectacular scenes in Norma Talmadge's screen version of "Camille." What a woman; men feared her because she was so beautiful; a picture that you'll long remember.

A COMEDY-DRAMA

TUESDAY and WEDNESDAY, February 14-15

With Colleen Moore and Larry Kent; adapted from the story by Howard Irving Young; directed by Marshall Neilan. A rollicking comedy-drama of a little waitress who hitches her lunch wagon to a star and takes a wild ride into society. The hot times she has with the frigid four-hundred is worth a million in laughs. This is Colleen Moore's latest picture. The AMUSU has the pictures with good music—that's why people are driving for thirty miles to get here; they know that they will find a fine picture and music. Extra, "PATHE NEWS, No. 12," the world before your eyes.

LIVING INDIAN MAY BE 180 YEARS OLD

Doubters Admit He Must Be at Least 145.

Los Angeles, Calif.—Thirty years before the Stars and Stripes were adopted as the American standard in the midst of the War of Independence, a man who still lives first saw the light of the sun, if Indian gossip be true.

The man is Captain Sam, or Sam Fish, whose cabin is in the Indian village near June lake in the high Sierras.

No one knows how old is Captain Sam. Testimonies of the region affirm he is the oldest man in California, perhaps the oldest in the world.

Captain Sam does not say. What matters few minus more, a few minus less, which many have passed over his head?

Trials tales indicate that Captain Sam is one hundred and eighty years of age. While some men who admit this figure admit it is not improbable he had seen 145 winters.

There are more than one hundred Indians in Captain Sam's family. These far along in years recall tales he once told at camp fires, years ago. Nowadays, white men strive in vain to have him impart his memories of the past.

The stories of his relatives indicate that Captain Sam was a grown man, a leader of his tribe, when the Donner party went through the upper Owens valley nearly a century ago.

This was the first party of whites to traverse the region. Relatives of Captain Sam recall the accounts he gave them of his achievement at seeing white men and women for the first time.

Often Captain Sam sits in the sun by his cabin door, smoking in his arms his latest descendant, a puppote of three months. He has lost track of the generations of his family. The puppote is believed to be his great-great-great-grandson.

Yearly the Putes and other tribes hold a four-day festival of sports and tribal dances at June lake. Nowadays, Captain Sam is carried thither on a birch litter, and is honored with revivals of ancient ceremonies.

Each year when the festival is completed this year it was held the first four days of July—the celebrators wonder if Captain Sam will be with them when the next fete comes around.

Egyptian Queen's Tomb, 4,500 Years Old, Found

Cambridge, Mass.—Discovery of the tomb of Queen Meresankh III, which closes gaps in Egyptian history of the Fourth dynasty, has been made by the Harvard university museum of fine arts expedition, says a report received here from Dr. George A. Reisner, head of the exploring party. Queen Meresankh was the great-granddaughter of Queen Hehnefer and King Sneferu, mother and father of Cheops, builder of the great pyramid.

The report says the newly discovered tomb is remarkable for the vivid colors of the reliefs and inscriptions which seem to have retained all their brilliancy after 4,500 years.

The burial chamber was plundered thousands of years ago and no valuables have been found. Two inscriptions, one on either side of the doorway, reveal that 272 days elapsed between the queen's death and her burial.

Plan Loud Speakers for Indian Mosque

Calcutta.—Microphones and loud speakers are to be installed in the new Nakhuda mosque here, which when completed will hold more than 10,000 worshippers. There will also be two minarets equipped with powerful electric lights for calling the faithful to worship.

The old historic Nakhuda mosque was demolished some time ago and a new edifice is now being constructed to take its place. This building will be of reinforced concrete with a steel frame and will be complete with all the latest devices of modern science which will enable the congregation to hear better the injunctions of the Imam.

The pulpit of the Imam will be on the first floor but will be visible from the two floors above.

German Family Holds Longevity Record

Berlin.—The record for longevity probably belongs to a German family named Lantze. Frau Franziska Quenfeld, born Lantze, who lives in Berlin, has just celebrated her hundredth birthday. Of her nine brothers and sisters three lived to be more than one hundred years old and five were past ninety when they died.

Frau Quenfeld, who was born on a farm, organized the first League of Patriotic Women in Germany and was its president for 25 years. She is in full possession of all her faculties, and follows current events with keen interest. The Prussian prime minister sent her an official message of felicitation on her birthday, and accompanied it with a piece of porcelain from the state porcelain works as a gift of the government.

STATEMENT FROM DAN RIGGS

To the Voters of Bulloch County:

On February 15th, next, you will go to the polls to elect your county officials or servants for the ensuing four years. I am before you as a candidate for re-election to the office of clerk of the superior court, which position I have held for the past few years. My record as clerk is well known. I have put forth every effort to render acceptable and efficient service to the people, extending rich and poor every courtesy and accommodation at my command; keeping in mind at all times that I was only a public servant elected by the people to fill THEIR office for the transaction of THEIR business.

I was reared on a farm and obtained what education I have in the common schools of Bulloch county. I was not born with "a silver spoon in my mouth." At the age of sixteen I began work for myself, and every dollar that I have received since that time was from my own labor.

My physical condition is a great handicap and I am not physically able to do any and all kinds of work. The people of Bulloch county have been very kind to me by electing me to the office that I now hold, and in return for their kindness I have done everything possible to make them an honest, efficient and conscientious servant. So far I have heard no one say that I have failed, for which I am very glad indeed.

There are some people who present the argument of "long term." That appears to me to be an argument that appeals to the prejudice instead of the intelligence of the voters. Do you appreciate the manner in which I have conducted the clerk's office? Do you appreciate the many accommodations shown? Will you vote against me for the reason that I have held the office? Will you be misled by the statements of some as to the amount I have received, which has been greatly exaggerated? Will you put me out because I have tried to be a faithful servant? Could I have done more? Has my opponent any more to offer you and can he do more than I have done?

Would you discharge your faithful farm hand, your honest and hard-working cashier or book-keeper, or your family physician? No, you would not. Then why should you be less considerate of your public servants and be less interested in the proper conduct of your public offices?

Now, when you go to the polls to cast your vote, kindly weigh matters carefully and give me due consideration, and when you have done that, I will be satisfied as to the result. I have not had the time to make a thorough canvass of the county; however, I have been in every locality, but have missed a great many folks. I want you to consider this as a personal appeal to you to vote for me on the 15th, whether or not I am able to see you in person.

I want to thank my friends for the interest manifested in the present campaign. I appreciate their valuable assistance, but will ask that they keep up the fight until the polls are closed.

Respectfully,
DAN N. RIGGS.

INTERESTING AWAKENING IN PROBATION WORK

Georgia's work for her delinquent children is praised in the recent issue of the Probation Bulletin, published by the National Probation Association with headquarters in New York, when the Bulletin says: "An increase in probation personnel in Georgia the recent addition of five full-time officers and three part-time, reflects a campaign of education and intelligent organization work by the State Department of Public Welfare, of which Miss Rhoda Kaufman is secretary."

The counties to which the Bulletin refers as having taken this progressive step in an effort to help the child in trouble are Troup, DeKalb, Whitfield, Ware and Dougherty, each with a full-time probation officer, and Cook, Grady and Mitchell with a part-time probation officer.

JOE G. TILLMAN, Candidate for Sheriff.

A CARD FROM JOE TILLMAN.

To the Voters of Bulloch County: The campaign for county officers is drawing to a close. On Wednesday of next week you will go to the polls to choose those whom you will have to serve you in public office for the next four years.

I am asking you to give me consideration for the office of sheriff. I had hoped to be able, during the weeks preceding the primary, to meet all the voters of the county face to face, so that we might know each other personally. Bulloch is a large county, and I am sure I must have missed some of you in my trips over the county. I hope those of you whom I have not met will consider this as my personal appeal to you.

For eight years I have been attached to the sheriff's office as chief deputy, and in that capacity I have endeavored to serve the people fairly and promptly. During all these years, laboring in the employ of others, I have never forgotten that the people of Bulloch county are the masters to whom I owe the highest responsibility, and no man can truthfully say that I have purposely done him a wrong or dealt harshly with him.

When you go to make up your ticket next Wednesday, I want you to remember me. If you feel that the experience I have acquired in added in any measure to my qualifications for the office, I ask you to give me the benefit of that consideration.

When you consent that my strength of body and my determination to do my duty, entitle me to your support, I shall count myself happy. Whether you vote for me or not, we are going to be friends, and I want you to bear in mind that I am always ready to serve you and to go where duty calls me to go, as I have always done in the past.

Yours truly, JOE G. TILLMAN.

CARD FROM DAN R. LEE: To the Men and Women Voters of Bulloch County: The election is near at hand when fair and unfair means are used by old politicians to further the cause of their friends, so beware of false reports.

I am now and have been trying to run a clean race and I hope to win your support on these principles, for when this race is over I expect to serve all the people or none.

I am making my second race, four years ago I and five others made the race and I was defeated by a small margin, again I and three others are making the race and I hope to win as each of my friends who are running for the same office hope.

I am in this race single handed and expect to run my own race, not affiliated with any one or any faction and if the voters think I am competent and worthy of their support without expecting some political pull or special favor I will appreciate their support and assure them that I will fill the office entrusted to me with the best of my ability.

Very respectfully yours, DAN R. LEE, Brooklet, Ga.

EWELL T. DENMARK, Candidate for School Superintendent.

A CARD FROM E. T. DENMARK

To the Voters of Bulloch County: On next Wednesday 9,000,000 people are going to elect a school superintendent, the very important business of selecting public servants for the next four years.

No office to be filled is more important than that of the school superintendent, because of the fact that the children of our county are far more important than any other asset, and those things which affect their welfare mean more than anything else could possibly mean to us as builders for the future.

In coming to you again, as a candidate for the high and responsible office of county school superintendent, I realize full well the responsibility which goes with this office. I do not, therefore, undertake your right to inquire something about the fitness of the man whom you are going to intrust with that important business. You are entitled to know in a most intimate way the fitness of the man who asks for your trust.

Xany of you have known me personally for years. Others of you I have had the pleasure of meeting during the campaign which is now about to come to a close. Yet there are many of you whom I have not seen, and to whom I shall have to introduce myself in this brief appeal. Pardon me, therefore, if this may seem rather personal in its details, which are intended solely for purposes of introduction to you.

I am a native of Bulloch county, and am 32 years of age. My parents are Mr. and Mrs. Maine Denmark. He was born and reared in the Bay district of this county. She was the daughter of the late Alex Brannen and was born and reared near Statesboro. They have lived for forty-two years in their present home on the farm near Portia.

In my boyhood I attended the country schools. Finishing there, I was for two years a student at the Georgia Normal School.

From the farm I was unexpectedly called to work in the school at Portia in 1920, to take the place of a school teacher made vacant by a former teacher who had resigned. I found myself delighted with this work, and continued in that position two years, following which I was employed as superintendent of the school. This position I have held ever since except for the short time I was employed as temporary superintendent for a half term at Brooklet, serving for another week prevented him from assuming immediate charge of the school. Thus, through all my teaching career, I have been identified with two of the schools which are recognized as among the best in Bulloch county.

Since taking up the work of teaching, I have not neglected the further preparation of myself for the work. In 1923 and 1924 I attended summer school at Athens, and in 1925 I attended the University of Virginia for a teacher's course. Last summer I further pursued my preparation for the work at the State University in Athens. I have held all this while a first grade teacher's license.

By instinct and by training my sympathies are with the common schools. I know their importance and their needs. I am not coming to you with high-sounding promises of any sort, would you have a right to expect me, if elected to accomplish single-handed the many betterments which you as patrons are entitled to wish for your children. I do promise, however, if elected to co-operate with those who share with me the school responsibility in the county to promote the best possible for the school children of the county.

Four years ago I asked you for this honor. Nearly twelve hundred of you good people voted for me at that time. You I want to thank for a favor which would have made me a winner, a man counting now on those few more votes.

Your truly, EWELL T. DENMARK.

OLD INDIAN LIVES ON MEMORIES OF PAST

Last of the Ojibways Recalls Frontier Days.

Montclair, Mich.—Jimmy Kish-Me-Tog, seventy-eight, is the last surviving of the Ojibway Indians who once roamed the wilds of Alger county. He lives in an old crude shack situated between two hills and here and there are the old trappings of his former life. He has a few rule pieces of furniture and kitchen utensils.
The old Ojibway's fondness for the "happy hunting grounds" is evident in the many times that he is permitted to live in his cabin the rest of his remaining days and die on the ground that he and his forefathers trod over many times, which is known as Indian town.

Places Chairs Along Trail.
Fifty years ago a dozen or more Ojibway families resided on the site, but now Jimmy Kish-Me-Tog is all alone. Here and there among the hills Jimmy has placed crude chairs near old trails and he often goes from one to another and sits and ponders over the years that have flowed by when the Ojibways held sway and were happy among themselves and hunted and fished.

Old Jimmy greets all his visitors with a smile and will answer a few of the questions put to him in brief English sentences. He was born on the E-Anne reservation. His father was a noted hunter and trapper a century ago. He doesn't know who his grandfather was. His forefathers were warriors and repelled the Indians on the east and the Sioux on the west.

Old Jimmy's father once told the mail three times a week between old Montclair and Wetmore, carrying the mail sacks on his back.

Overlooks Lake Superior.
The old Ojibway's cabin overlooks Lake Superior. Jimmy often looks out over the great lake, along whose shores his tribe hunted and in whose waters they struck the white fish and trout.

He says he could work and hunt
very good if it were not for his rheumatism. For 15 years he toiled at the old Montclair furnace. Up to three years ago he made his living at trapping and fishing and was adept at both, but now old Jimmy is crippled up and an object of public charity.
He resented being taken to the county poorhouse and pleaded to be left alone in his crude shack—there to die
where he has lived so many years.

An understanding and kind-hearted county board consented to let the sole survivor of the Ojibway tribe there about have his heart's wish.

This Actress Made Good in One Night

London.—Miss Eileen Carey, who has become the bride of the laborer-playwright, Sean O'Casey, is an actress who made good in one night.
She, like her husband, comes from Dublin. She is still young and critics say she will make a great actress.
She started her stage career in the chorus of the O'Casey Opera company.
Always eager to get into straight plays and make a name in London, she tickled small roles in several plays that were not outstanding successes.

When Kathleen O'Regan, leading lady, fell ill 24 hours before the premiere of Sean O'Casey's "The Plough and the Stars," Eileen Carey offered to take over the part, and it was then that she first met her future husband.
She made a hit in spite of the short notice and has just finished her tour in O'Casey's "Shadow of a Gunman."

Now O'Casey is writing a special play for her, the "Red Lily," which will be produced soon after their honeymoon.

Dogs on Guard at First French Library

Paris.—Dogs now are the night
watchmen in France's great library, the Bibliotheque Nationale, in the palace Cardinal Mazarin built for it, and its additions.

One man commands the three dogs that roam the dark or dimly lighted corridors and rooms, some of them half a block long. Economy was the motive of the young librarian, Roland Mareel, but the patrol has proved to be efficient. The dogs cover every corner and run 50 times the distance of the elderly watchmen whose places they have taken. Also, they see and they smell and they have no fear.
Two of the dogs are from the home of Edouard Herriot, minister of public instruction, who has control of the library. The dogs were trained by Mons. Herriot and are thoroughly house-broken.

Homing Pigeon Back to Roost After 4 Years

Martinez, Calif.—Missing for four years, King Avalon, a homing pigeon owned by Frank Madero of Martinez, came home to his loft the other day, worn and tired, apparently from a long flight.

The bird, with many others belonging to members of the Martinez Hom-ing Pigeon club, was loosed in Nevada four years ago for a race to Martinez. When the bird did not return, Madero thought it had fallen prey to a hunter or hawk.

COTTON OUTLOOK FOR YEAR 1928

OVERPRODUCTION SHOULD BE GUARDED AGAINST.

Holding Down Acreage and Pushing Up Per Acre Yields Considered Safer Than Increased Acreage for 1928.

Atlanta—The outlook for cotton in 1928 is bright and money can be made by the cotton grower, if overproduction does not occur according to leading southern agriculturalists and bankers who recently broadcast over radio from Atlanta their messages on the subject of how to make more money from farming in 1928. These leaders brought out the fact that the great cotton surplus made in 1925 deluged away 1927 under heavy consumption. Cotton acreage in this country fell 14.7% and production fell 23.9% in 1927 compared to 1925. World production decreased 29% for the same period.

Not only did this marked reduction in cotton production brighten the outlook for the cotton grower, but there has been unprecedented world consumption of American cotton. The year 1927 witnessed the largest consumption of American cotton in the history of the world.

DANGER TO BE AVOIDED. But these leaders sounded a warning. There is danger that the bright outlook may mislead growers to put in too large an acreage and to produce another 1926 crop with its enormous surplus and its ruinously low prices.

The policy advocated by these speakers is to hold down the cotton acreage, and practice the economy of high acre yields through good seed, liberal fertilization and thorough cultivation. Let the surplus acreage be given to food and feed crops to provide for the needs of the farm, and, wherever possible, to increase the farm income through more cash crops and livestock.

LOW COST COTTON.

To grow cotton so that each pound will cost the least and sell for the greatest profit, speaker after speaker returned to the necessity of high acre yields. It was brought out in farm surveys that were reported that cheap cotton and greatest profits were made where the most money was spent for fertilizers and good seed. High yields per acre made large profits and low yields per acre made low profits or no profit.

The high cost of farm labor was also advanced as a reason for increasing the acre yields, to the end that the return from labor may be obtained. Aside from the facts presented by these southern leaders, referred to, new facts supporting their claim are being provided by the winners in the cotton growing contests of 1927.

MADE COTTON AT 43 CENTS PER POUND.

In the 5-acre cotton growers' contest in South Carolina in 1927, J. H. Hendrix, of Pickens County, made the highest yield, which was 1,141 pounds of lint per acre. Clemson College figured up the costs that can be properly charged and found that the cotton had been produced at only 43 cents per pound. He had made only a half bushel of two bales per acre, but cost per pound would have been still higher.

What did Mr. Hendrix do to get no large yield at so low cost per pound of cotton? He had grown rice in a winter crop, turned it under early and applied barnyard manure. Then, after preparing a good seed bed, he applied 623 pounds of 12-4-4 fertilizer per acre. An excellent stand was obtained, and, after chomping, he made a side dressing of 86 pounds of sulphate of ammonia per acre. He cultivated thoroughly.

It should be in this connection that while Mr. Hendrix had the largest yield, he was awarded second prize under the rules of the contest, by being penalized 10% for growing a variety of cotton that produced 7.9 inch staple, one inch staple being the length desired in the contest.

The outstanding fact about Mr. Hendrix's success in the low cost which each pound of cotton cost him, a record made possible by good soil improvement practices and moderate use of high grade fertilizer and top-dressing.

BOYS DEMONSTRATE HOW TO MAKE CHEAP COTTON.

In the great record made by Paulding County, Georgia, where 21 boys produced over 300 pounds of lint per acre and 6 boys over two bales per acre, the average cost per pound of growing, harvesting and ginning the cotton was about 7 cents.

Taking the yields of the six boys who made over two bales per acre, the cost of producing their cotton averaged 6.1 cents per pound, according to W. H. Garner, the County Agent. The average net profit per acre was $19.45.

These boys did not point down fertilizer, as is sometimes the case with the cotton contests, but they picked out good land, put on manure and made a fine seed bed. They used good seed; applied from 600 to 900 pounds of fertilizer of the 3-2-2, 12-4-4 or 15-5-5 grade at time of planting, and all of them side-dressed their cotton with 100 pounds of sulphate of ammonia per acre.

A noticeable fact about these and other prize winning yields is that the growing crops received side dressings of nitrogenous fertilizer in addition to the regular application of fertilizer at planting time.

You Can't Draw a Check on "Suppose"

RIGHT now you are thinking about next fall's harvest. Suppose you get a bigger yield than last. It will mean more profit—more money in the bank. That's what you are after. Then why just "suppose"?

Why not make sure?

Here are two things that are as true as truth.

Good fertilizer increases the yield and improves the quality of crops.

Royster's is fertilizer at its best. How can you know that? Because Royster's fertilizer has been used and tested by crops for 43 years. Because, if hadn't made good in a big way, farmers wouldn't be buying more and more year after year. There are some who have used Royster's for over 40 years.

Is it wise to take a chance on your crop profits to save a few cents an acre on your fertilizer bill? Ask the Royster dealer near you.

BOY OF FIVE YEARS CHARGED WITH MURDER

IRWIN WILLIAMS TAKEN INTO COURT IN ARMS OF HIS MOTHER FOR HEARING.

Savannah, Ga., Feb. 10.—His arm clutched to his mother's breast, Irwin Williams, five years old, faced the recorder here today on a charge of murder. He was dismissed by Judge Schwartz, who wrote, "Under age" across the charge.

According to the Savannah Morning News of today:

A child's desire to get back a piece of string which had been taken from the recorder here today on a charge of murder. He was dismissed by Judge Schwartz, who wrote, "Under age" across the charge.

The shooting occurred at the home of Gordon English, on the Dean Forest road about a quarter mile from the Louisville road. Mr. English was living at the house. The child was a visitor, being left with Mr. and Mrs. English while the mother worked in Savannah and took her child to her home in West Savannah over the week end.

The shooting was the aftermath of a childish play in which a short piece of string had figured. This had been taken away from the five-year-old boy by his uncle, Mr. Pope, who was in the front room with him as Mrs. Gertrude Pope, Mrs. English's sister, the dead man's brother. The child demanded the return of the string and Mrs. Pope, in an endeavor to pacify the youngster, began tussling with Paul for the string. The child stood by watching the struggle and evidently thinking that Paul was hurting his sister-in-law, Gertrude, walked over to one corner of the room, picked up the shotgun, laid it across his knees, drew back the hammer with fingers scarcely able to overcome the spring-tension
